Specialist PICU for Women

Cygnnet Hospital Woking, Surrey

Now accepting referrals

Acorn Ward, our 10 bed female PICU service, accepts emergency and crisis admissions. Referrals can come to us from all areas, including acute and prison services.

Our aim is a short, rapid intervention to help service users regain a sense of control and order in their lives, so they can move to a less restrictive care setting and return home.

The service provides expert, intensive, short-term, individualised care for service users detained under the Mental Health Act. Service users will present with increased risks that require them to be assessed and treated in a PICU environment.

During my time at Cygnnet I felt safe and welcome. I would like to thank all the staff, including all managers, for my stay and helping me get better back to my health. I'm very happy with my stay and would recommend Cygnnet to friends and family, they have helped me, not just with my physical and mental health but have helped me a lot in life. Thank you to all
