

Nominations Now Open

The National Service User Awards celebrate the achievements of service users and residents who use mental health, learning disability and autism services throughout the UK. The Awards recognise the large number of service user led projects that have made a difference at a local level. We are asking mental health, learning disability and autism services nationwide to nominate and submit service user led projects in the following Award categories.

Finalists will be invited to attend the Awards event that will take place on Tuesday 21st September at Colwick Hall Hotel in Nottingham.

Excellence in Co-Production

All projects and initiatives that involve a strong element of co-production either internally or externally to a service.

Breaking down Barriers

Projects that tackle the stigma around mental health or raise awareness and educate people on mental health.

Recovery and the Arts

Creative projects that promote and support recovery including music, drama, art etc.

Health and Wellbeing

Projects that promote mental or physical health and wellbeing.

Outstanding Service User Involvement

This category recognises an individual or team that has made outstanding achievements in service user involvement or leadership.

The Mark Britton Service User Choice Award will return for 2021.

The winner of this award will be determined by a live service user vote during the Awards event in September.
