Cygnet Health Care to hold recruitment Open Day in Macclesfield

Staff from a residential service for adults with learning disabilities in Macclesfield will be talking about how local jobseekers can make a positive difference to the lives of people with mental health needs during an open day to recruit health workers.

Cygnet Health Care operates Broughton Lodge, on London Road, Macclesfield, a 20-bed specialist residential service for adults with autism and a learning disability who may present with behaviours that challenge. It is inviting those interested to learn more about working in the industry to come along to an open day on Wednesday 05 October.

Jenny Gibson, HR Director at Cygnet Health Care said: “The recruitment challenge facing the health care sector has been well documented recently. Increased demand for specialist services like ours means it is crucial to recruit talented and compassionate individuals to help reduce the current pressure on the sector.”

“Previous experience is not essential, but it is important that applicants have a passion for delivering outstanding care and helping others. We have an amazing team of dedicated staff members, a number came into support work without previous experience and they will be on hand to share their experiences at the open day for people interested in a career in care.”

Incentives for new staff include discounts from big brands like Nike, Boots, H&M, Primark, Boohoo, Argos, IKEA, lastminute.com. Cygnet also offers discounted gym membership, free meals onsite, a group pension scheme and a health cash plan to help with costs including eye tests, prescription glasses and contact lenses, dental check-ups and hygienist fees, Chiropractic and physiotherapy sessions and prescription charges.

Recruitment in the care sector has never been more important, with the number of vacancies rising above 120,000 nationwide.

The Open Day will take place on Wednesday 5 October from 10.00am – 3.00pm at Congleton Town Hall, High Street, Congleton CW12 1BN.
