

Improving lives together

Specialist PICU for Men

Blythe Ward,
Cygnet Joyce Parker Hospital,
Coventry

Blythe Ward is a bed male PICU which accepts emergency and crisis admissions. Referrals come to us from all areas, including acute and prison services.

Our aim is a short, rapid intervention to help individuals regain a sense of control and order in their lives, so they can move to a less restrictive care setting and ultimately return home.

The service provides expert, intensive, short-term, individualised care for men detained under the Mental Health Act. Service users will present with increased risks that require them to be assessed and treated in a PICU environment.
