Specialist Residential Service for Adults with Learning Disabilities and Complex Needs

The Old Vicarage in Blakeney

Good

The Old Vicarage in Blakeney, Gloucestershire is a specialist residential service supporting individuals with learning disabilities, autism, complex needs and behaviours that may challenge.

Our focus is on enabling people to lead full, happy lives by empowering them with greater choice and control. We do this by working with each person to understand their unique strengths, abilities, and preferences, ensuring the care we provide is genuinely person-centred.

Our service at a glance

The service is made up of two houses: a main house with eight bedrooms and a separate Coach House with five bedrooms. All rooms are for single occupancy, and individuals have access to shared kitchens and lounges.

To create a personalised and homely atmosphere, the people we support are actively involved in decorating their own communal spaces. The home is surrounded by substantial gardens, providing a peaceful and therapeutic environment that supports our low-arousal approach to care.

- Supporting people to enhance their social skills
- Person-centred activity plans
- Promoting family involvement (where appropriate)
- Homely environment with 24/7 support
- Physical Health Action Plans
- Access to community activities
- Large landscaped garden
- Accessible information available
- Least restrictive practices
