Cygnet Hospital Colchester Celebrates International Nurses Day

A hospital in Colchester celebrated the impact of its nurses on the lives of individuals with learning disabilities and mental health needs.

Cygnet Hospital Colchester marked International Nurses Day on 12 May, recognising the vital skill, dedication and contribution of nursing professionals.

Located on Boxted Road, Cygnet Hospital Colchester is a 59-bed service for men with learning disabilities, autism and mental health needs.

The hard-working nurses enjoyed a delicious cake before receiving a thank you certificate as a token of appreciation.

Rebecca Catchpole, General Manager at the Cygnet Health Care service, said: "Our nurses make a real difference to the lives of those we support, and we're truly grateful for the care and commitment they show."

Shane Mills, Cygnet Group Director of Nursing and Quality, recognised the exceptional contributions of nurses across the entire organisation.

He said: "Across our services, nurses demonstrate compassion, professionalism, innovation and leadership in the care they provide to the people we support, across Cygnet Health Care and Cygnet Social Care services.

"Our nurses' compassion inspires hope, their courage transforms lives and their presence proves healing is possible. We are thankful for our nurses' unwavering dedication and the life-changing impact they make every day."

Cygnet Group has a 2,000-strong nursing workforce across England, Scotland and Wales, making it the leading health and social care provider's biggest profession.
