Cygnet Hospital Harrow Celebrates International Nurses Day

A hospital in Middlesex celebrated the impact of its nurses on the lives of individuals with mental health needs.

Cygnet Hospital Harrow marked International Nurses Day on 12 May, recognising the vital skill, dedication and contribution of nursing professionals.

Located on London Road, Cygnet Hospital Harrow is a 43-bed acute and complex care service for men with mental health needs and autism.

The hard-working Cygnet Health Care nurses enjoyed a delicious cake as a token of appreciation before discussing their experiences, motivation and inspiration to support others through the most difficult moments in life.

Shane Mills, Cygnet Group Director of Nursing and Quality, recognised the exceptional contributions of nurses across the entire organisation.

He said: "Across our services, nurses demonstrate compassion, professionalism, innovation and leadership in the care they provide to the people we support, across Cygnet Health Care and Cygnet Social Care services.

"Our nurses' compassion inspires hope, their courage transforms lives and their presence proves healing is possible. We are thankful for our nurses' unwavering dedication and the life-changing impact they make every day."

Cygnet Group has a 2,000-strong nursing workforce across England, Scotland and Wales, making it the leading health and social care provider's biggest profession.
