

Press Release

Immediate Release

13 May 2026

Cygnet Social Care's The Fields Celebrates International Nurses Day

A residential care service in Sheffield celebrated the impact of its nurses on the lives of individuals with learning disabilities.

The Fields, a Cygnet Social Care service in Woodhouse, marked International Nurses Day on 12 May, recognising the vital skill, dedication and contribution of nursing professionals.

Located on Spa Lane, The Fields is a specialist residential care service for adults with learning disabilities.

The hard-working nurses enjoyed a tasty tea party with the Cygnet Health Care service dedicating the day to the extraordinary commitment carried out by those who choose care as their calling.

Shane Mills, Cygnet Group Director of Nursing and Quality, recognised the exceptional contributions of nurses across the entire organisation.

He said: "Across our services, nurses demonstrate compassion, professionalism, innovation and leadership in the care they provide to the people we support, across Cygnet Health Care and Cygnet Social Care services.

"Our nurses' compassion inspires hope, their courage transforms lives and their presence proves healing is possible. We are thankful for our nurses' unwavering dedication and the life-changing impact they make every day."

Cygnet Group has a 2,000-strong nursing workforce across England, Scotland and Wales, making it the leading health and social care provider's biggest profession.