

Press Release

Immediate Release

23 September 2026

Care Services Shine at Cygnet Social Care's Got Talent

Residents from care services across the UK proudly took part in Cygnet Social Care's second 'Cygnet's Got Talent' competition.

The event, which took place on Tuesday 8 September, at Wythenshawe Forum Hall in Manchester, celebrated the diverse abilities and talents of the people supported by Cygnet's wide range of social care services.

Building on its reputation for delivering pioneering services and outstanding outcomes for individuals with learning disabilities and autism, Cygnet Social Care invited residents for the second year in a row to showcase their unique skills and creativity.

Residents shared their talents with the judges and showcased a variety of skills, including singing, dancing, poetry, and rapping.

Finalists attended from various Cygnet Social Care services including Beacon House, Broughton Lodge, Cherry Tree House, Ellen Mhor, Fairways, Kirkside House, Kirkside Lodge, Langdale House, Long Eaton Day Services, Old Leigh House, Pines, Marion House, Supported Living in Leeds, The Fields, The Orchards, Oxley Woodhouse, Toller Road, Trinity Lodge, Ranaich House, Willow House and Woodrow House.

The competition highlighted the vital role of creative arts in empowering individuals.

Over 30 people took to the stage to showcase their talents, and the judges were deeply impressed by the passion and skill on display. After a spectacular show, all the finalists were brought to the stage for a standing ovation.

Gareth Williams, CEO of Cygnet Social Care, said: "I am delighted that this year's event was even bigger and brighter than the last. With more talents on show from the fantastic individuals we are proud to support, this really is a highlight of the year for us all at Cygnet Social Care."

"It was once again a privilege to witness such an inspiring display of talent and happiness. This event was a wonderful opportunity to bring our services together, celebrate the unique abilities of the people we support, and simply have fun. We know how important the creative arts are for personal expression and wellbeing, and Cygnet Social Care's Got Talent perfectly captures that spirit.

"Congratulations to everyone who took part. We are already looking forward to next year's event."

The success of the event underscores Cygnet Social Care's ongoing commitment to empowering individuals to lead happy, fulfilling lives. Preparations are already underway for the 2027 event.

You can watch a video of the event highlights here:

<https://www.cygnetgroup.com/video/cygnet-social-cares-got-talent-2026/>